

Campus Crumbs

Credits for Courtship

A course called, "The Art of Making Love" has been installed at Rollins College. Credit for five hours of work a week is given. We would like the course, of course, if it is at all practical. It could be taken during "leisure" hours by those who can't go on leave.—Citadel "Bull Dog."

Forty alumni of the University of Nebraska were listed on the Nebraska state ballots at the election this year. The majority of these were graduated from the College of Law and are now practicing law in the various municipalities throughout the state.—Davidsonian.

London, Eng.—Dr. G. W. James, who has been diagnosing fatal illnesses of kings of England, has made the discovery that Charles the Bold died of an ingrowing toe nail which infected his foot. Histories thus far have revealed only that Charles died in 1477.

Dr. James also has found that Kings Stephen, John, Henry V and Edward I died of typhoid. Mary I, he declares, was a victim of the "flu."—Davidsonian.

Stadium to Be Classroom

Norman, Okla.—Because a heavy enrollment has placed class room space at a premium at Oklahoma University here, officials are considering making use of the large space underneath the seats in Memorial Stadium as extra classrooms.

It is believed that a wall may be built along the outer side of the big athletic plant, and the 50 by 50 feet thus enclosed may be divided into smaller rooms.—Emory Wheel.

Salt Lake City, Utah.—"A tentative plan under which Freshmen and Sophomore students of the University of Utah would be organized as a special unit to be termed the 'College of the University of Utah,' in which they would receive more specific preparation for upper division work, has been presented to the faculty for its consideration," Dr. Frederick J. Pack, head of the department of geology and chairman of the president's committee which drew up the plan, stated in outlining the proposed split-up of the classes of the University of Utah.

Annapolis, Md.—Officials of the Naval Academy here have been rebuked by a candidate for admission, whose grades were not good enough to qualify him as a midshipman, for paying too much attention to studies and not enough to athletics.

In his letter, the disappointed student wrote that he had been an active athlete in high school and college, and that he had fully expected to play on the Navy football team next fall.

"You can't expect a 217-pound all-round athlete to have very much time for studies," he said.

Although the state of Georgia was founded with the original purpose of making it a silk producing colony and the industry was pursued here diligently for a long time, at the present time there is not a single silk-worm in the whole state. This fact was brought to light recently by Dr. Jack P. Corry of the history depart-

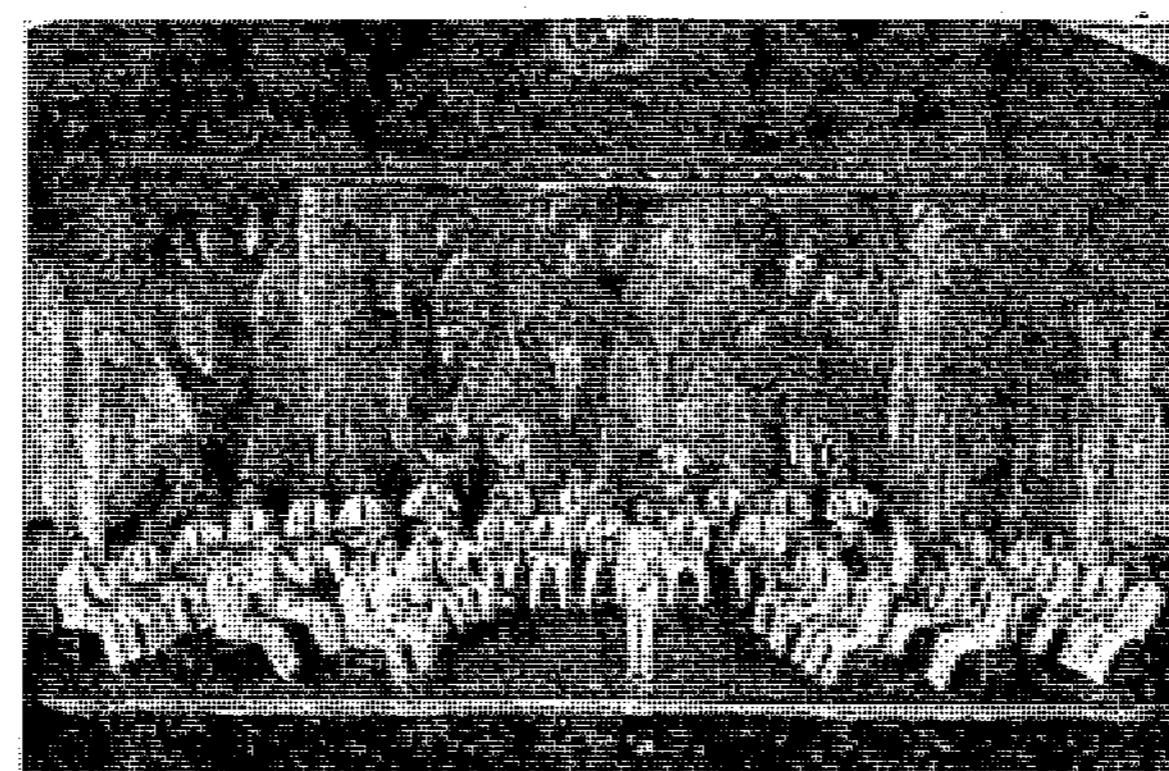

The Colonnade

Volume VI

Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Ga., May 11, 1931

NUMBER 18

Georgia Military College Band

This Band will give a concert at the Richard B. Russel Auditorium, at G. S. C. W., on Friday, May 15.

First Woman Member of Congress Addresses Students

Miss Janette Rankin of Montana, first woman to take her seat in Congress, addressed the student-body at chapel Tuesday morning. Her subject was "The Moral Obligation of the United States to remain in a peaceful state."

Miss Rankin said, "The United States is legally prohibited from considering war as a means of settling disputes of any nature with any other nation. The treaty which she signed at the close of the late World War clearly states such and any attempt to use warfare as an arbiter will be a distinct violation of the supreme law of the land, of which all treaties with other countries are a part."

Having had ample opportunity to observe at close range the inner workings of the national government in Washington, where she resided for several years while a representative, Miss Rankin is in a position to speak with authority on the subject. Miss Rankin was a member of congress at the time of the formal declaration of war between the United States and Germany, and was incidentally, the only member of congress to vote against the war measure.

Accompanying Miss Rankin was Mrs. Wellington Stevenson of Decatur, Georgia, chairman of the legislative committee of the Georgia League of Woman Voters, who spoke on "The Revision of the Tax System in Georgia."

Miss Rankin and Mrs. Stevenson were guests at a reception given by Dr. and Mrs. Beeson in the Mansion for the Literary Guild and the Sophomore class Monday afternoon.

ment of agriculture in search of one of the rare crawlers. The reply revealed the fact that not only are there no silk worms in the state of Georgia, but there is but one man in the United States who is known to possess any of the worms.—Emory Wheel.

Home Economics Club Elects Officers

The meeting of the Home Economics Club held on Friday, April 30, featured the report of the delegates to the recent meeting in Macon.

Miss Dixie Neal, president of the Home Economics Club of Georgia State College for Women, and Miss Evelyn Poole, chairman of the students' Economics Clubs of the state gave their reports as delegates to the Georgia Home Economics Association held in Macon, April 17-19.

Miss Poole presided at all the meetings in Macon and Miss Neal gave a report to the meeting on the work done this year by the Home Economics Club of G. S. C. W.

Following these reports, there was a discussion of the meeting of the American Home Economics Association to be held in Detroit the week of June 22. It was urged that G. S. C. W. have a large delegation in order to help bring the Association to Georgia next year. The club suggested that the trip be taken as a vacation this summer.

The new officers elected for the coming year are: Frances Williams, President; Lucy Martin, Vice-President; Vivian Williams, Secretary; and Evelyn Poole, Treasurer.

MOTHER'S DAY HONORED AT VESPERS

The vespers service of Sunday evening May 10th was a Mother's Day pageant directed by Miss Polly Moss and Miss Margaret Rucker.

The pageant presented the spirit of mother through the story of civilization and how that spirit has uplifted humanity.

Those students taking part were: Miss Mary Dimon, in the part of Whistler's Mother; Miss Elizabeth Fort, History; Miss Marjorie Neal, Music; Miss Dixie Neal, Art; Miss Mary Dean Anderson, Literature; Miss Elizabeth Woundsend, Religion; Miss Grace Rouse, Spirit of Civilization.

Mr. Sidney Stempbridge sang Mother McCree, and special music was rendered by the Y. W. C. A. choir.

Sophomore Commission Officers

Sophomore Commission which represents the Sophomore class in the Y. W. C. A. has been selected from the present Freshman class.

The election of the commission for next year resulted in the selection of the following girls: Lucy Hearn, Greenville, S. C.; Mildred Connell, Cairo, Ga.; Margaret K. Smith, Atlanta, Ga.; Christine Goodson, Dawson, Ga.; Dorothy Smith, Milledgeville, Ga.; Virginia Tanner, Douglas, Ga.; Louise Hatcher, Macon, Ga.; Betty Watt, Thomasville, Ga.; Marion Jeannette Tigner, Atlanta, Ga.; Brown, West Point, Ga.; Amelia Marie Parker, Atlanta, Ga.; Evelyn Burrus, Columbus, Ga.

Journalism Class Assist in Editing Issue Colonnade

The English 26, journalism class, under direction of Dr. W. T. Wynn assisted in getting out this edition of the Colonnade.

This is the first newspaper experience the class as a whole, has had. Several of the members of the class have served as correspondents for their local papers. The members of the class are: Marian Keith, Marietta, Ga.; Ethelie McDowell, Madison, Ga.; Ruby Shockley, Altavista, Fla.; Virginia Smith, Macon, Ga.; Elizabeth Fort, North, S. C.; Rebecca Torbent, Greensboro, Ga.; Jennie Lee Cooley, Chatworth, Ga.; Virginia Luke, Ovilla, Ga.; Farise Parsons, Hill City, Ga.; Alena Halon, Bradenton, Fla.; Rachael Smith, Milledgeville, Ga.; Virginia Frazier, Reeland, Miss.; Bess Rowan, McDonough, Ga.; Marjorie Ennis, Atlanta, Ga.

NEW OFFICERS FOR FRENCH CLUB

The newly elected officers of the French club are: Elizabeth Cowart, President; Mary Bell Gibson, Vice-President; Anne Pfeiffer, Secretary; and Lillian Ledbetter, Treasurer.

Turner, Thomasville, Ga.; Carol Reed, Gainesville, Ga.; Sue Mansfield, Macon, Ga.; Hattie Carter, Meansville, Ga.; Katherine Lawrence, Macon, Ga.; Grace Creel, Union City, Ga.; Miriam Lanier, Soperton, Ga.; Louise Hatcher, Macon, Ga.; Betty Watt, Thomasville, Ga.; Marion Jeannette Tigner, Atlanta, Ga.; Brown, West Point, Ga.; Amelia Marie Parker, Atlanta, Ga.; Evelyn Burrus, Columbus, Ga.

Alumnae Celebrate Birthday Party April 27th, in Honor of the Seniors

The Alumnae Association entertained the Seniors at a most delightful birthday party in the College Tea Room, April 27, 1931, at 8:00 P. M. The guests were welcomed at the door by Miss Katherine Scott, President of the Association. Misses Jessie Trawick and Annie Harper Presided over the Punch bowl.

The program was originally and effectively worked out even to the smallest detail.

Program

1. Introduction and welcome—Miss Katharine Scott.
Birthdays of the College.
2. Introduction of Birthday Cake—Miss Austelle Adams.
Giant Birthday Cake Bearing Forty Candles brought in by Miss Eleanor Brannen.
3. Events in History of the College.
Birthdays of Uniform.
4. Fashion Show conducted by Mrs. Nelle Womack Hines and Miss Mary Burns with Miss Maggie Jenkins at the piano.
Fashion Plates:
Misses Cornelia Chappell, Mary Lee Anderson, Malissa Giles, Gussie Tabb, and Caroline Selman.
5. Lighting of Alumnae Candles from Candles of Miss Scott and Dr. Beezon.
6. Birthdays of Seniors—The four seasons; Dance of The Seasons by Mrs. Ireland, Misses Marie Smith, Isabelle Jones, and Annie Jo Moye.
7. Birthday Presents to Seniors.
Minature Degrees—Miss Mary Moss.
8. Candle Lighting Ceremony (Everyone was given a miniature candle for the ceremony.)
Candle Lighting—Miss Katherine Scott.
9. Lighting of Senior Candles from Caroline Selman.
10. Alma Mater (By Light of the Burning Candles.)
11. Cutting of Cake by Faculty of Alumnae.
(Miss Jenkins found the ring and Miss Thrash the thimble).
12. After the program, delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake carrying out the class colors, were served by the Faculty Alumnae.

THE COLONNADE
PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY STUDENTS OF THE GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN CORNER HANCOCK CLARK
STS. MILLEDGEVILLE, GA.

"Entered as second-class matter October 30, 1928, at the post office Milledgeville, Ga., under the Act of March 3, 1879."
Subscription Rate, $1.00 per year

COLONNADE STAFF 1930-31

Editor-in-Chief Margaret Trapnell
Managing Editor Sara Stokes
Exchange Editor Virginia Luke
Treasurer
Lavonia Newman
News Editors
Mary Rogers — Caroline Russell
Editorial Staff
Bobbie Burns — Virginia Keeney
Kathryn Vinson
Alumnae Editor
Susie Dell Reamy
Y. W. C. A. Editor
Claire Flanders
Society Editors
Oscie Respass — Suzannah Foster
Circulation Managers
Eulalie McDowell, Mary Snow Johnson; Dorothy Lowe; Lavonia Newman; Virginia Smith; Mary Driskell; Sara Morgan; Margaret Rucker.
Reporters
Rebecca Markwalter, Virginia Smith, Martha Shaw, Lillian Ledbetter; Elizabeth Cowart, Dorothy Lowe, Mary Snow Johnson, Lavonia Newman, Mary Bell Gibson, Marguerite Arthur, Virginia

JOURNALISM CLASS STAFF

Editor-in-Chief Marion Keith
Business Managers Eulalie McDowell and Ruby Shockley
Advertising Managers Virginia Smith and Elizabeth Fort
News Editors Rebecca Torbert and Jennie Lee Cooley
Social Editors Virginia Luke and Farise Parsons
Columnist Alena Hanlon and Rachael Smith
Sport Editor Virginia Frazier
Feature Editors Bess Rowan and Marjorie Ennis

EDITORIAL COMMENT

This issue of The Colonnade, has been in charge of the journalism class. The staff welcomes the new writers as contributors.

Journalism, as a career is increasing in importance each year, and we believe that it is most important that those who are to be in charge or be connected with publications, and especially student publications with which we are concerned have an understanding of the modern newspaper methods and a love and appreciation for the work. The journalism courses that have been offered on the campus have tried to stimulate this interest, and we believe that those who have had some of the technical training are better fitted for this type of work, naturally.

So we say in all sincerity that we hope the journalism courses will increase and that a greater interest will demand more vigorous training, instruction and practise. Thus we feel that then, and only then will the college publications be up to and above par.

KEEPING THE CAMPUS CLEAN

Recently at the chapel exercises Miss Napier placed before the student body its old problem, "Keeping the campus clean." She reminded the students of the beauty of the campus and buildings and made an appeal for everyone to cooperate with her in trying to keep them clean.

Indeed, the campus is a beautiful place. It is pointed to with pride by the townspeople and friends of the college. Its well kept shrubbery and clean lawns are centers of pride in the heart of every G. S. C. W. girl.

The buildings, too, come up to that high standard of art and architecture. Money and effort have been spent in an attempt to create an environment that would become a desirable haunt for all the girls. It has been a success.

But little do the girls realize that one bit of paper can ruin the effect of a beautiful scene that has been created after years of effort. Consider the home from which you came. Try to recall every detail in your own room, your own living room and your own lawn. How do you feel when some member defaces one article of furniture makes a path across one side of the lawn or throws a bit a paper "just back of the shrubbery" to get it out of sight. You are angry. Certainly! That is your home.

In just the same way, this college is your home. All the furniture on the campus belongs to you. Every spot on the campus is yours. How are you caring for your nook? The best way to do this is to put all the trash that you have into the trash bin. It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

ON WRITING APPLICATIONS

Mrs. B. says, "In the spring a young man's fancy turns to love." But young ladies of Georgia State College for Women are thinking of what they are going to do next year.

BEHOLD THE CHANGES!

Chappel Hall auditorium where illustrious young boys and girls formerly sang Carous's immortal, "Over The Summer Sea," now used by the household science department as a drying room for towels. Could it be that the breezes from the "Summer Sea" are helping any?

The dormitory rooms in Parks Hall, where students formerly dreamed of their luscious, loving lovely knights, is now dreamland where chemistry, history and economics are the chief subjects for "waverings" thoughts.

The chicken yard is no more. Students now depend on the bells to awaken them.

The territory where Dr. Steele taught psychology is at present used for the registrar's office. Well, reactions can still be registered. That is, of course, to certain subjects.

Once upon a time, there was a paved walk directly in front of Parks Hall. Now only the absence of wild onions marks its former path.

The Kemp House, where some of the grammar school boys and girls went to school has been demolished. It is to be remembered that a number of boys took cooking lessons there.

By the way, most of those boys are frequently seen on the streets. A number of them are in uniform.

In the good old days, Miss S. had a private room for her "S.S." classes. Now, the auditorium is the favorite resting place of her students. We'll admit it's better sitting for song birds.

He may be right. Think it over.

The question of our not being descended from monkeys having been decided somewhat in the favor of the affirmative side, the climbing bars have been removed from the rooms in Chappel Hall where formerly a division of the physical education department was located, and the rooms are now used for mental climbing in French, health, art and household science.

The ground on which railroad embankments were originally constructed is now our delightful recreation park. Wouldn't it have been fun to play in a railroad yard?

"And, "Believe it, or not," as Ripley says, dances were formerly given every Saturday night in Atkinson Hall, and register more surprise, town boys were invited. Now we have the floor, we have the music, alas! Behold the changes on the campus—we have no men.

STANDARDS

In a recent chapel talk Dr. Beeson gave a straight-from-the-shoulder discussion about standards. He urged us to live up to the ideals of the institution we call Alma Mater.

Men and women have given their best in the making of the college, in the forming of its ideals and its standards; and when the students fail to do their part both the institution and the students must suffer.

As the Holy Grail was ever before Sir Galahad, holding him in the light, so our standards should hold us to the ideals so nobly expressed by President Beeson.

Are we going to sing our Alma Mater and then fail to respond to it? The college reflects our ideals and standards. Are we willing to lower them?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the place but to the man who helped to make this college what it is. Could we remember that—for the man who did so much for us?

you know that that is why sleeves are never to be rolled in the auditorium? It is reverence not only to the

NIP AND TUCK

A hungry dog once wandered
Into a butcher's store;
The butcher threw some sausage
To the dog upon the floor.
The butcher said, "Now eat it,"
The dog said, "I decline,
For in that link of sausage
Is that Old Gal of Mine."

—Selected.

We're firmly resolved to throw a cactus at the next person who wants to know which we'd rather be: a giraffe with the sore throat or a centipede with corns and rheumatism.

One father remarks that his daughter's book-buying is the elephant's pink pajamas—rather extensive.

In a few more days like those of last week we need no longer worry about evolving a scheme to finance a swimming pool.

This week's fairy story: Boys will attend the Junior-Senior shindig.

Never trust a man farther than a Scotchman will pay your way on a trip around the world.

When we asked him, the aforementioned Scotchman declared that if the likewise aforementioned trip around cost a nickel, he couldn't get out of sight.

Recent similes: So low he had to reach up to touch bottom. So low he could walk under a daschund on stilts. As horrifying as the htings the older generation thinks the younger on edoes. As faithful as Cornelius. As surprising as the way Mrs. Terry knows every student by her first name. As thought-provoking as one of Dr. McGee's classes.

There have been several recent discussions of ideal men. Why, my dear, the two words have absolutely no logical relation.

After reading this stuff, if you do, is your mind like a tunnel after the train has passed through, except that there's not even a trace of smoke? The second problem for your consideration is to guess who gave us the idea for that query.

Do you get up at night? Do you suffer with pains in your back and legs? Are you all run down at the end of the day and feel that you can't live through the next week? Then, Madame, your case is as clear as Dr. Johnson's questions. You're entering Field Day.

COLLEGE VERSE BOOK ANNOUNCED BY PUBLISHER

Because of the splendid proportions to which American college and university poetry has grown, Henry Harrison, the New York publisher, will issue an anthology called American College Verse.

All students who write poetry are urged to communicate promptly with this publishing house, so that they may be sent full details. The anthology will be edited by Mr. Harrison himself and illustrated by Charles Cullen.

Prizes of $25, $15 and $10 will be awarded to the authors of the three best poems in this anthology, to be selected by a distinguished Board of judges.

In writing for information, students should mention the name of their college. Address Henry Harrison, Publisher, 27 East 7th Street, New York.—The Vassar Miscellany News.

BORROWED AND FORGOTTEN
I'm blue, lonely and sad. Never have I been more unhappy. Since the day I first left my happy home, I have been overcome with the desire to return. Of course my present resting place is all right, but then I would much rather be in my own nook with my own friends.

I am a heartbroken book, borrower and forgotten. Please! Won't you take me home?

Personal

Miss Clara Nixon recently entertained her agriculture 27 class with a party at the Colonial Theater.

* * *

Students attending the party were: Dot Anderson, Margaret Teasley, Mary Baker Black, Boots Astin, Besie Stancil, Rayo Meehan, Virginia Keenan, Marte Smith, Mary Frances Smith, Marguerite Howell, Myrtle Williams and Mrs. L. C. Lindsey.

* * *

Dr. Alice Hunter presented five members of her English 8 class in a recital Wednesday afternoon.

* * *

Students taking part in the recital were Virginia Newsome, Anna Cooper, Wilma Procter, Madge Temple and Margery Torbert.

* * *

Mrs. Wooten left the first of the week to attend a Health Conference in New York.

* * *

Miss Estelle Pendergrass, a teacher in the Tubman High School, Augusta, Ga., spent the week-end with Misses Kathryn Sherrill, and Emily Asbury at Ennis Hall.

* * *

Mrs. L. B. Wheeler of Atlanta, Ga., visited her daughters Misses Marjorie and Helen Ennis during the past week-end.

* * *

Miss Wiline Jolly, Dot Jay and Doris Watkins of Fitzgerald visited Miss Martha Strange in Ennis Hall Sunday.

* * *

Mrs. Julian Moye of Atlanta was the guest of Agnes Devore, Monday afternoon.

* * *

Miss Susie Beall of Eatonton was the guest of Wattie Beall, Monday afternoon.

* * *

Mr. J. L. Respass came by to see his daughter Ocie, Tuesday afternoon.

* * *

Mrs. Sauls Peacock of Eastman, was a visitor of her daughter, Edna Peacock.

* * *

Miss Margaret Wise, a student of the University of Georgia, spent the week-end with her sister Loris Wise.

* * *

Mrs. Holliman and Miss Sarah Bussey, of Sylvester, were the guests of Mary Holliman.

* * *

Miss Margaret Wixon, Ennis Hall, entertained with a tea Monday afternoon, May 4. Blue and white formed the color scheme for decorations. Chicken salad sandwiches and tea were served. Those present were: Wylene Collins, Marietta, Ga.; Mina Lewis Collins, Marietta, Ga.; Bernice Johnston, Orlando, Fla.; Marion Keith, Marietta, Ga. Katherine Fletcher, Fitzgerald, Ga.

* * *

Miss Jewell Daniel, of Marietta, Ga., spent the week-end of May 1 with Miss Dorris Bush.

* * *

Miss Julia Bolton will spend the week-end with her parents in Griffin, Ga.

* * *

Miss Frances Dorsey of Wesleyan college, was the guest of Virginia Wright over the week-end.

* * *

Miss Frances Snell spent the week-end with her parents at Lyons, Ga.

SOPHOMORES ENTERTAINED

Monday afternoon a reception was given the Sophomore class by President and Mrs. J. L. Beeson at the old Executive Mansion. The girls were shown through the historical rooms, profusely decorated with roses, and were told many interesting stories about the things found there by Dr. Beeson, Dr. Wynn, and Dr. Scott.

Students attending the party were: Dot Anderson, Margaret Teasley, Mary Baker Black, Boots Astin, Besie Stancil, Rayo Meehan, Virginia Keenan, Marte Smith, Mary Frances Smith, Marguerite Howell, Myrtle Williams and Mrs. L. C. Lindsey.

* * *

Nothing but an everlasting patriotism to a lost cause have prompted an extremely large delegation of students to march to the cemetery on Memorial Day to pay honor to the Confederate dead.

It was a most commendable act on the part of those students who chose to go.

The old soldiers are not so numerous as they once were and to see such a spirit as that which permeated the entire town April 27th must have made their brave old hearts glad.

After the speeches the guests returned to the round room where punch and dainty cakes were served by the hostess, assisted by the officers of the Freshman class.

Again the age old question "Resolved that heredity has more influence on life than environment" will be debated between the two sections of the Health 20 classes. The following girls have been chosen as debaters:

Carolyn Selman, Decatur, Ga.; Margaret Trapnell, Newnan, Ga.; Susie Deli Reamy, Quitman, Ga.; Bess Rowan, McDonough, Ga.; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Rainey, Eatonton, Ga.; Julia Heisler, Thomasville, Ga.; Elizabeth Fort, North, S. C.; Mary Diamon, Columbus, Ga.; Jane Hill, Greenville, Ga.; Carolyn Green, Atlanta, Ga.; Lucile Little, Fort Valley, Ga.; Christine Deckle, Meadow, Ga.

Sunday evening, at vespers, Miss Katherine Scott's Bible Study Class presented the pageant, "The Women of The Bible," written by Miss Scott. This program was wonderfully thought-provoking, giving an entirely new "slant" on some of the women and acting as a reminder for others. The music, interwoven, added to the impressiveness and beauty.

"Seeing the Invisible," the uplifting talk given by Miss Nell Coleman Thursday evening, was equally worth hearing.

Not more than one-tenth of the student body took advantage of these opportunities for enjoyment, thought and spiritual uplift offered by our most important and far-reaching student organization, the Y. W. C. A.

MEMORIAL DAY

The fact that when a girl goes off the college she leaves behind her everything save her own initiative and will serve only to make more commendable any action which reflects love and loyalty to "the boys in grey."

Nothing but an everlasting patriotism to a lost cause have prompted an extremely large delegation of students to march to the cemetery on Memorial Day to pay honor to the Confederate dead.

It was a most commendable act on the part of those students who chose to go.

The old soldiers are not so numerous as they once were and to see such a spirit as that which permeated the entire town April 27th must have made their brave old hearts glad.

COLLEGE DEPT. STORE

For Graduation Gifts we have a Full Line of Soft and fluffy underthings, as well as Dulsheer Sole Mate Hosiery in white and all new shades to correspond with Early Summer Frocks.

Your Satisfaction—Our Aim

See Marion Davies in

"It's a Wise Child"

Monday, May 18th Only.

Price 35cts.

COLONIAL THEATRE

At graduation time your friends expect your photograph.

EBERHARDT'S STUDIO

Look at Your Shoes and Have Them Rebuilt at

HARPERS & HARPERS SHOE SHOP

Call 215

Compliments McKINNON MOTOR CO.

Sales - Service

STAR CLEANERS

Clean With Star Cleaners

Better Service and Better Work

Special Skirts—Cleaned and

Pressed 15c

DRINK COCA-COLA

IN

BOTTLES

Delicious and Refreshing
MILLEDGEVILLE COCA-COLA
BOTTLING CO.

PHONE 308

Compliments Of

Milledgeville Clinic

WOOD'S PLACE

For the best sandwiches, fruits, ice cream, cold drinks etc. Come in or phone 9. For quick service.